

4168 A. Garth "Gus" (Lt.Col. Ret'D) Methven

Published: October 16, 2019

Age 83, on October 8, 2019 in Glebe Centre, Ottawa, Ont. Son of the late Joseph and May (White) Methven (of Sackville). Engineer-educated at Royal Military College in Kingston, Ont., and trained as a navigator, Garth had a successful career in the Canadian Air Force that spanned many functions and locales, including Maritime Patrol service on the Argus aircraft. Garth was extremely proud of his family, and his time was regularly dedicated to their happiness and endeavours. He instilled in his sons the values of hard work, commitment, patience, and honesty, which they try to bring to their own families and interactions every day. He is survived by his sons, Bradley (Ling), Ottawa; Andrew (Kathie), Weston, Fla.; granddaughters, Michelle, Paris, France, and Courtney, Jacksonville, Fla. He was predeceased by his loving wife, Fran; infant daughter, Lynda Suzanne; and brothers, Keith and Blair. Arrangements entrusted to Kelly Funeral Home in Ottawa, and T.K. Barnard Funeral Home in Sackville. Service in Brookside Cemetery, Bedford, at 11:30 a.m. on October 21st, followed by a reception at 16 Camden St., Bedford. Donations appreciated to the Alzheimer Society of Canada.
